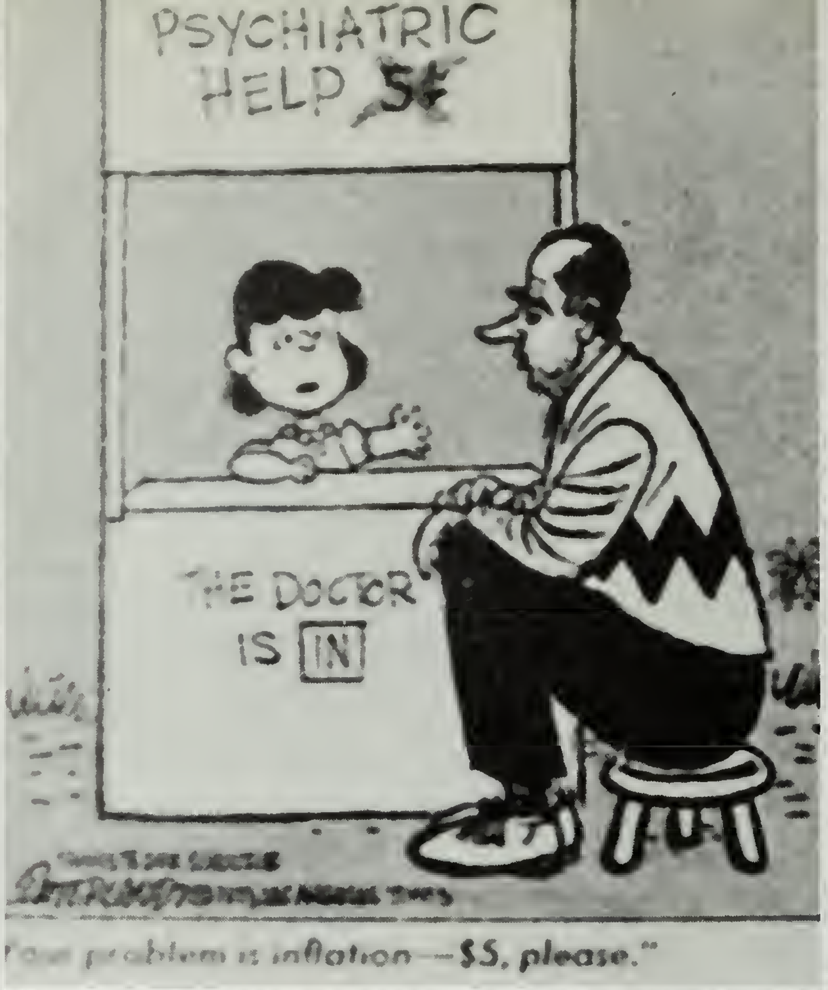
For years I have with reluctant heart withheld from publication this already completed book: my obligation to those still living outweighed my obligation to the dead. But now that State Securit has seized the book anyway, I have no alternative but to publish it immediately.
THE AUTHOR



"Your problem is inflation—$$, please."

Relatively important news stories appeared less significant during the turbulent year. Among these were the struggle between President Nixon and Congress over the bombing of Cambodia; the long face off between Indian militants and federal officers at Wounded Knee, S.D.; Soviet leader Brezhnev's visit to the U.S.; the return of Juan Peron to power in Argentina and the President's trip to the Middle East Countries as a peaceful mission.

John Dean

Alarms of Impeachment sounded on Capitol Hill as President Nixon fired Watergate special prosecutor Archibald Cox and momentarily defied a court order to surrender evidence in the Watergate Case. A year of turmoil over the case reached a preliminary crisis when public outrage persuaded the President to turn the evidence over to the courts. Initial steps toward impeachment continued, however, placing greater burdens on the Administration handicapped by the accumulated weight of public distrust.

ULSTER'S TOLL OF VIOLENCE

The young, the old, the weak, the strong–Protestants and Catholics alike–all have felt the cruel sting of the violence in Ulster. Since riots in Belfast and Londonderry touched off the current sectarian strife four years ago, the fighting has taken an awesome toll: 841 people dead–including 189 British soldiers–10,000 wounded and $101 million already paid in compensation for property damage.

The 1974 Hawks were characterized by an extreme sense of togetherness and commoradery which helped make it possible to compile one of the best records in recent years. Their season was highlighted by a great victory over a strong Haverhill team. It was a year which few of our players will forget.

Ski Team — So Close and Yet So Far

Traveling so fast that they could only be photographed as blurs, the Hawk skiers went undefeated in the slalom event this year. Leading the team was junior Kathy Shinnick who for the second year running was tops among the league's girls.

The team finished second overall only when the last race of the season was cancelled due to lack of snow.

Class Will

We, the members of the Class of 1974, in a varied state of knowledge, nostalgia, and nervous anticipation of the future, do bequeath and bestow upon a number of friends and faculty members the following gifts. All should be accepted in the spirit of fun, affection, and good humor which prompted our agents, the Class Day Committee.

"A gentleman and a scholar" as her typical science pupil is our wish for our gracious and gentle Mrs. Kerr.

For Mr. and Mrs. Steinberg we provided an ironing board so she can press his weights.

And for Mr. Magno, a remote control soccer ball.

As a special demonstration model for Dr. Tzimopoulos, what else? — an inflatable Chesty Morgan.

Projected for math wizard Miss Bowen is a score in the 99th percentile on her state bar exams.

To Mr. Lando a retroactive percentage fee for all the help he has given to the Vocational Seniors in getting jobs.

For our yearbook adviser, Mr. McDonnell, an avid Celtics fan, a night on the town with John Havlicek.

"Have a good day" is a regular greeting of this English teacher, and our wish for you, Mr. Walsh, is many truly wonderful days.

To Mr. Matta, or is it Joe Namath, the role of understudy to all Joe's commercials.

And for Miss Wallace, our warmest congratulations and best wishes to you on your June 21 wedding day.

As a special gift to Miss Mary Mooney, who is retiring this year from the WHS Business Department, we present a gold typewriter, a symbol of her years of dedicated service.

To our Student Council advisers, Mr. Grant and Mr. Thorp, a booklet of 1001 fundraising activities.

Our gift to Mr. Damien, who knows us all in the Vocational Senior Class, six dozen replacements for his English and History students who are graduating this Wednesday.

To Miss Hogarty, in recognition of her devotion to the Canine World, we award the Medal of St. Bernard.

Our selection for the goodnatured English teacher in Room 215, Mr. Collins, is a meticulous housekeeper to keep his desk in order.

As a treat to lunch-time favorite Jerry Rizzo, a whole school day without LUNCHES.

A book of Irish humor is our gift to Miss Geary.

For a sweet cooking teacher, Miss Irwin, we have found a recording of "Something's Burning."

Our class present for Cliff Porier, Head Football Coach, is a case of right guards for the upcoming season.

At the request of your AV crew, Mr. Schubert, we suggest an ELECTRIC CIGAR.

To play back for his Social Studies Circle, we have procured for Mr. Mach the celebrated Watergate Tapes.

A bottle of medicine is our prescription for Mr. Travalini so he won't go into a "comma."

A toast to Mr. John Graceffa, the 1974 groom-to-be, in the Social Studies Department.

We provide for Ms. Furne, the Women's Lib enthusiast, a man to open all the doors of her future.

For Mr. Sweeney, a little class.

And for Mrs. Pilotte we have discovered a lovely wooded area where she may raise up and train her classes of "chicadees."

Our plans for Mr. and Mrs. Matthews include a mini-mansion in Millis, Mass.

For her comfort in the coming vacation days in the hot sun we give Miss Kouray a pair of "Cool Ray" sunglasses.

To Mr. Ray, more sets of movies like the "Upward Bound" and "Outward Bound" series to show at Vocational and Waltham High.

We, the Senior Class, do take our tennis coach, Mr. Rose, to a higher court where he may stir up a racket.

To you, Mrs. Czarnowski, our conscientious and hardworking housemaster, we send a blue slip.

To protect the life of our Driver Road teacher, Mr. Cappucci, we have taken out an additional 99¢ policy.

We are publishing for Mr. Vallely a book entitled "Truly Trivial Math Problems." Included in this book is the latest Lynch equation: The integral of S to the EX equals the Function of U of the N power. $\mathcal{S}^{ex} = Fu^{n}$

We are borrowing Howard Cosell to referee the rivalry between the Concert Choir vs. the Stage Band . . . or is it the Stage Band vs. the Concert Choir?

For Mr. Viens, who is a friend to every Italian, we have secured a bearded blackboard.

A pair of dungarees embroidered with the signature of Helen Hayes is our gift to our Mr. Drama, Bob Eagle.

Give a cheer for Miss Castros for all her time and effort in football and basketball cheerleading.

The Chemistry Classes on the third floor leave His and Her McKnightrogen bottles to Mr. and Mrs. McKnight.

For our devoted and diligent librarians, we have recorded "The Sounds of Silence."

To Otho Kerr and Kevin Griffin, Class of 1975 President and Student Council President, respectively, best wishes for your success in the year to come.

A special thanks to Mrs. Shirley for being the kind of person she is, and for all the work she did for Class Day.

To our leaders, Mr. George Husson, and Mr. Ernest Viscarello, we do hereby express our appreciation for three memorable years of school life, and do therefore solemnly make deposition of this will and testament in their care on this third day of June, 1974, the year 5 in the life of this building.

Witness whereof this first Monday in June, 1974, Miss Katherine Devane, Mr. Lawrence Elliot, and Mrs. Barbara McCauley: We do set our hand and seal to this document. For the committee: Diane Cafarelli and Mary Sullivan.

CLASS OF '74

Sincere congratulations,
Class of '74;
The future is waiting for you,
You're standing at the door.

Our country really needs you,
With your youth and fine ideals;
Impeachment hovers over us,
What will Watergate reveal?

We need your bright, keen insight,
Unsullied and shining clear;
With your knowledge to lead us onward,
We really have nothing to fear.

College is open to you,
If you should so decide;
They have so much to offer,
Their doors are open wide.

We have an energy crisis,
That we cannot control;
With your youth and dedication,
You may play a leading role.

At least our country is at peace,
As you face your new tomorrow;
No longer must young men go to war,
And face the trial and sorrow.

We have given you a challenge,
Class of '74;
If you will only try your best,
No one could ask for more.

Best Wishes Class of 1974

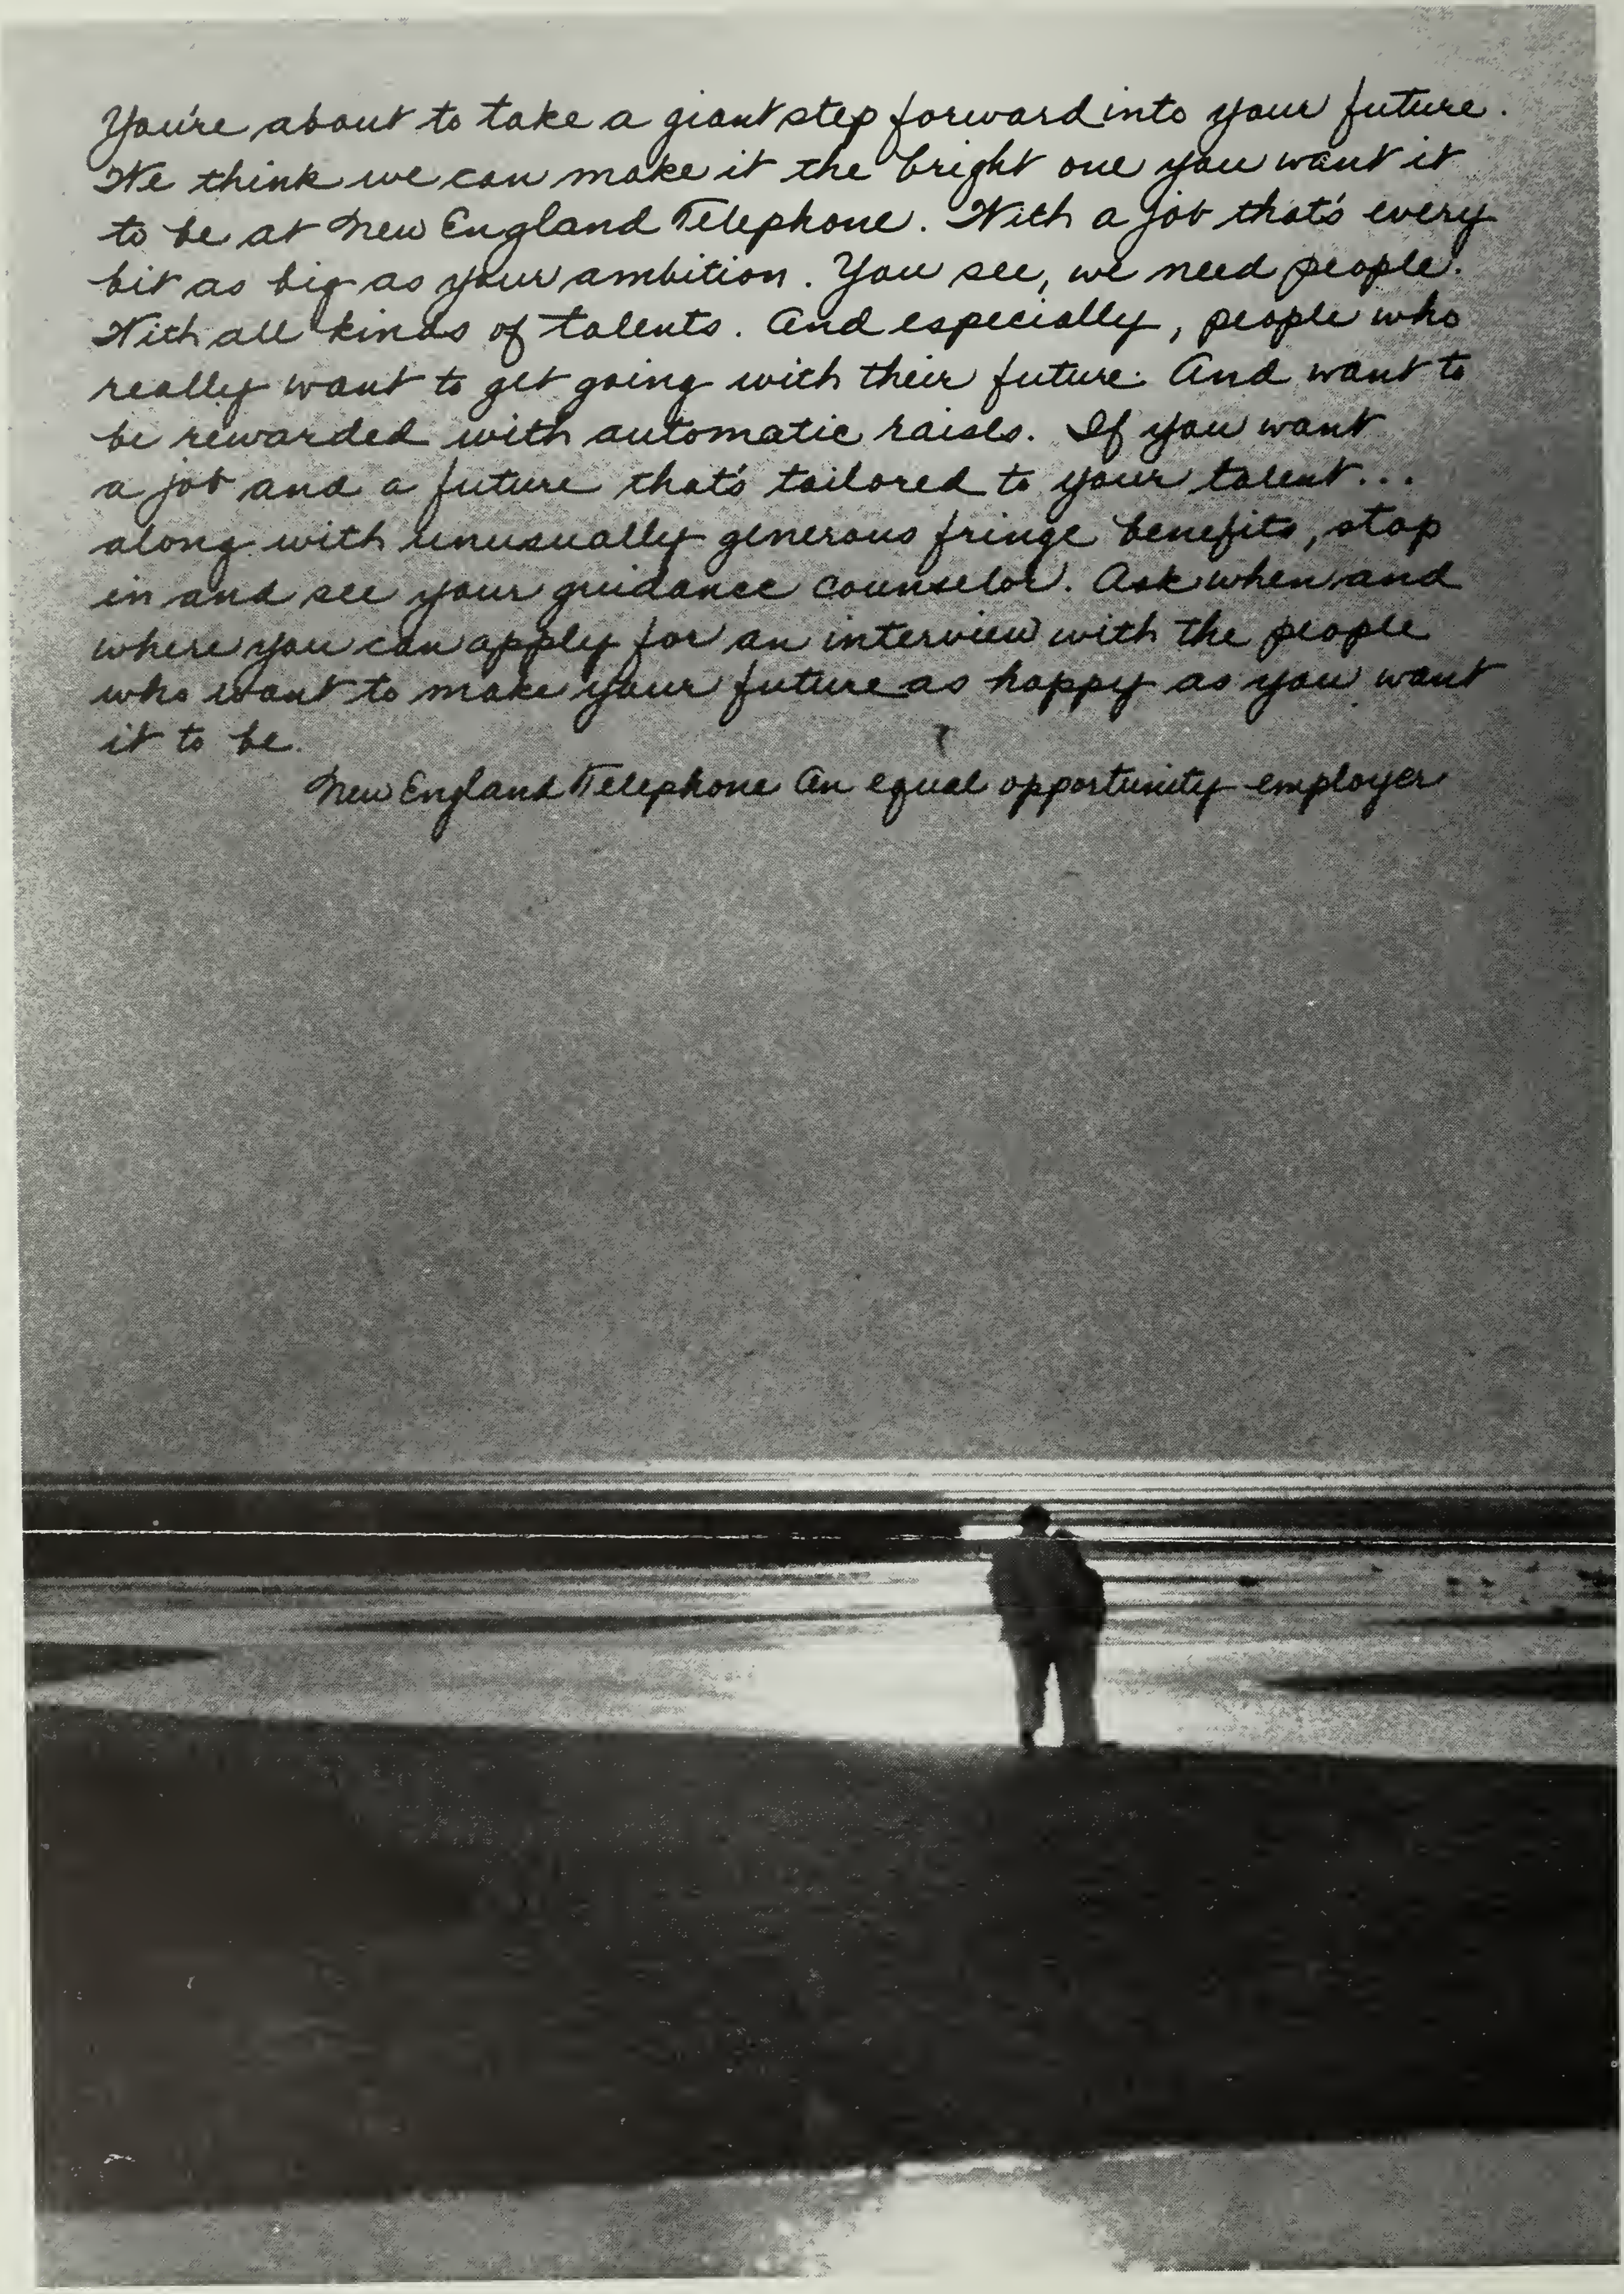
A Better Way to Bank
for All the People

GUARANTY-FIRST TRUST COMPANY



You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.
